YOUR ROADMAP TO BECOMING A UTAH REAL ESTATE AGENT

Everything you need to go from “I’m interested” to licensed and ready to build your business.

01 QUALIFY | 02 EDUCATION | 03 FINISH | 04 EXAM | 05 APPLY | 06 ACTIVATE

STEP 01 / MAKE SURE YOU QUALIFY

Start with the basics.

For meaningful criminal-history questions, contact Utah DRE before spending money on school.

- ✓ 18 or older at application
- ✓ High school diploma, GED, or equivalent
- ✓ Valid Social Security number
- ✓ Honesty, integrity, and competency standards
- ✓ Required identity and disclosure information
- ✓ Utah residency is not listed as a requirement

STEP 02 / COMPLETE 120 HOURS OF APPROVED EDUCATION

Three popular paths. Other Utah-approved schools are available.

FREE / SELF-PACED

ARTI Academics

$0 tuition

120 hours • Online • Live test prep

Utah-approved. Exam, application, and fingerprint costs remain separate.

PAID / SELF-PACED

The CE Shop / Stringham

$629–$969

120 hours • 100% online

Package resources vary. Standard, Value, and Premium currently include national + Utah exam prep.

LIVE / LOCAL

Bridgerland Tech

$380 est.

Logan • Mon/Wed evenings • ~4 months

Books may be additional. Pricing and schedules can change, verify before enrolling.

FINISH SCHOOL, THEN PASS THE EXAM

03

Finish your course

Pass your school requirements and save the Candidate Education Certifying Document. Utah allows no more than 8 credit hours per day.

DEADLINE / Apply for your license within 12 months of finishing school (and within 90 days of passing both exam portions).

04

Pass the licensing exam

Pearson VUE • $69 • in person • 4 hours total. Earn a scaled score of 70 on both the national and Utah portions.

BRING / 2 MATCHING IDS + EDUCATION DOCUMENT

GOOD TO KNOW

Pass one portion only? Retake the failed portion within 6 months and still stay inside the 12-month education window. Pearson requires 24 hours before rescheduling.
